Momix à la Catalane

From January 27th to February 5th 2017 the renowned children's and youth theatre festival Momix of Kingersheim (Alsace) will host a great presentation of a Catalan performing and visual arts program with five performing arts companies and an exhibition of illustrations featuring artists from Catalonia and the Balearic Islands. The visitor will enjoy the diversity, originality and effervescence of this major ART for young and not so young audiences with a series of activities that will take place throughout the festival, while professionals will be able to exchange viewpoints at the debates about their work and give project presentations.

Momix à la Catalane begins a season marked by a particular focus at Institut Ramon Llull on the children's and youth art and literary sector that will culminate with the participation of Catalonia and the Balearic Islands as Guests of Honor at the 2017 Bologna Children's Book Fair under the theme Sharing a Future: Books in Catalan, which will include an extensive program of activities and two exhibitions devoted to illustration.

Institut Ramon Llull, whose mission is the international promotion of Catalan language and culture, is promoting this in collaboration with the Institut d'Estudis Baleàrics.
